Eastern District of Washington Unveils Historical Displays

September 28, 2017 - The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington unveiled a series of historical display exhibits, permanently located in the lobbies of federal courthouses throughout the district.

The exhibits follow the theme of “You Are Here,” and explore key events, decisions and judicial officers that led to the establishment and growth of the Federal Judiciary in the Eastern District of Washington.

Educational panels in each of the exhibits take visitors through the different types of cases heard by the District and Bankruptcy Courts, to include Civil, Criminal and Bankruptcy proceedings, as well as key roles/players in federal litigation, and ceremonial proceedings over which the judicial officers preside. The Spokane exhibit also contains an interactive touchscreen display that provides a timeline tour of critical cases heard by the federal judges assigned to the Eastern District.

Exhibits are open to the public during normal business hours, from 8:00 a.m. through 5:00 p.m., at the following courthouse locations:

- Thomas S. Foley United States Courthouse, 920 West Riverside Avenue, Spokane, WA
- William O. Douglas United States Courthouse, 25 South 3rd Street, Yakima, WA
- Richland U.S. Courthouse & Federal Building, 825 Jadwin Avenue, Richland, WA

A reminder that all adult visitors to the U.S. Courthouse must present a federal, state, or tribal government-issued picture identification, a Canadian picture driver’s license, or a United States or foreign picture passport to gain access to the facilities. Visitors will be screened by court security officers upon entry.
