

CIVIL PRO BONO PANEL BROWN BAG LUNCH & FREE CLE

THE FEDERAL BAR ASSOCIATION FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT
OF WASHINGTON CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO JOIN US VIRTUALLY

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 2024 at NOON PT

- Are you looking for ways to gain experience in Federal Court?
- Are newer attorneys in your office looking for experience in Federal Court?
- Is Access to Justice important to you and your team?
- Are you interested in FREE CLE Credit?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, the Federal Bar Association for the Eastern District of Washington welcomes you to a FREE lunch-n-learn/brown bag panel discussion, regarding the Civil Pro Bono Panel, which our District Court developed by General Order prior to the pandemic.

We expect to be joined by and to get feedback from the Honorable Chief Judge Bastian and the Honorable Judge Dimke during this presentation, along with one or more of our magistrate judges. The panel itself will feature local, Eastern Washington practitioners who will be speaking about their personal experiences in taking these types of Civil Pro Bono assignments.

The Federal Bar Association for the Eastern District of Washington has applied for CLE credit* for attendees.

Yes, you heard that right - - free CLE credit, along with a great, informative program. Please make your calendar, RSVP (see below) and plan to join us on April 24th at Noon.

If you want to attend and receive the free CLE credit, we ask that you RSVP prior to April 24, 2024 to President Darren M. Digiacinto at dmd@winstoncashatt.com. Again, there is no cost to register. Once we have your RSVP, we will send you the link to the program.

*The Federal Bar Association for the Eastern District of Washington has applied for ONE HOUR of CLE CREDIT, and such application is currently pending before the WSBA, MCLE team.
